OCTOBER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Special Thanks to our sponsors GOLDPAN PIZZA, PIONEER CAFÉ, 108 TAPHOUSE.

KINDERGARTEN - Alon, our kindergarten student of the month is a very kind person. He is kind to his peers and adults alike. He works hard on his academics and helps his friends too. We are proud of you Alon Estacio! -Ms. Becky King

1ST GRADE- Ryan always has a positive attitude even when something is challenging. He consistently demonstrates this month's tribal value which is listening well with respect and he is always willing to help others. Thank you for being AMAZING Ryan! - Ms. Bekah Beckett

2ND GRADE- Lucy consistently demonstrates thoughtful listening during lessons, small groups, and class discussions. She makes others feel valued and heard by giving them her full attention and always staying engaged. Lucy's positive example inspires everyone in our class and we are happy to celebrate her this month! - Mrs. Katy Ostrovskain

3RD GRADE-Elias Bennett is a sweet kid who demonstrates kindness and thoughtfulness towards others. He consistently follows school rules and is always thinking about what he's supposed to be doing. Elias is a great friend to all classmates. - Ms. Joelle Gefre

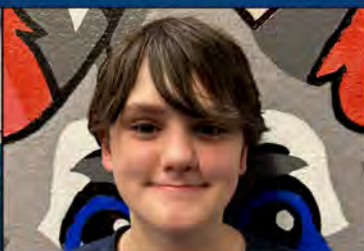

4TH GRADE-The student of the month is Arlo Brown. Arlo is known for his fabulous sense of humor, artistic creativity, and positive attitude. He lights up every room he's in, and he's respectful to everyone. We love Arlo! -Mrs. Elizabeth Avila

5TH GRADE- Mia is a role model for being kind, patient, and dedicated in 5th grade. She listens attentively during lessons and regularly asks questions to understand the material better. She always makes up the work she misses while sick, and helps others make up theirs, too. Mia's positivity consistently enhances the classroom atmosphere! -Mr. Jacob Alguire

6TH GRADE- Chieftain Keiser has a positive attitude and tries his best even when the task is challenging. He gets along well with classmates and staff and responds maturely to correction or redirection. Chieftain is honest and accountable for his actions, even if it means admitting to making a mistake. - Middle School Staff

7TH GRADE- Timber Annis stays focused on the class lesson and positively contributes to group discussions. He encourages his classmates to stay on task and responds well to any needed redirection. Timber has made an effort to complete assignments and turn them in on time. -Middle School Staff

8TH GRADE- Jordan Joe completes her classwork in a thoughtful, timely manner and raises her hand to take part in class discussions. She gets along positively with her classmates and is an excellent student aide. - Middle School Staff
