Blair Bloomfield!

You are our Local of the month!

*A familiar face, a warm smile, and a bright start to the day!
Blair Boling is part of what keeps Ketchikan moving.*

For many in our community, the day begins at a B&D Espresso stand—often before the sun is fully up. And more often than not, it's Blair behind the window, already hard at work making sure everyone has access to the drinks they rely on to start their day.

As the owner and operator of her family's 32-year-old, multi-location business, Blair carries forward a legacy that began with her mother, Signe, with the support of her grandmother, Ramona O'Dell—a name many in Ketchikan recognize for her leadership and dedication to the community. But what truly sets Blair apart isn't just the longevity of the business—it's the way she shows up for people every single day.

If you're a regular, there's a good chance Blair already knows your order. In fact, many customers don't even have to say a word. Some, like those who enjoy treating a friend or coworker, can simply give a name—and Blair knows exactly what to make. It's a small detail that speaks volumes about the care and attention she brings to her work. On many of Ketchikan's gray, rainy mornings, Blair is something more than a barista—she's a bright spot. A friendly face. A consistent, positive presence that people count on. And somehow, she does it all while raising four children—now with her oldest daughter working alongside her—making B&D Espresso a proud fourth-generation, family, women-owned business.

Blair Boling represents the kind of quiet dedication that keeps our community connected. It's not about recognition—it's about showing up, working hard, and making a difference in the everyday moments. And that's exactly what makes Blair Boling someone worth celebrating.

The LOCAL Community Spotlight sponsored by JAG Alaska, celebrates individuals whose everyday efforts help build a stronger community. Please join us in congratulating Blair Boling, this month's JAG Community Spotlight honoree!

APRIL IS PET FIRST AID AWARENESS MONTH!

Do you know the basic signs of a pet emergency?

You should always contact Stonetree if you think your pet is experiencing a medical emergency, but these are a few possible signs to be aware of:

- Breathing or airway issues like labored breathing or panting, specifically when they're not active.
- Bleeding from wounds or orifices that doesn't stop after a few minutes.
- The color of their gums could indicate a medical emergency. Pink and moist is normal. White or pale pink is a sign of bleeding or shock. Gray or purple can be from a lack of oxygen.
- Straining to urinate (especially in male cats) can be a sign of urinary blockage.
- Intestinal blockages or stomach torsions could show as vomiting soon after eating/drinking, abdominal pain or distension, or an animal being weak or unable to stand.

WELCOME TO CALLIE'S CORNER BOOK NOOK!

Do you like to read? I do too! Since I read roughly a book a week (more or less) I thought I'd share what I'm reading, and when I'm done I'll share how I feel about it. No long reviews, just a nifty Star Rating system:

Deserves an Ex Libris!

Delicious, not nutritious.

"If I don't survive, tell my wife, hello."
—Neutral President

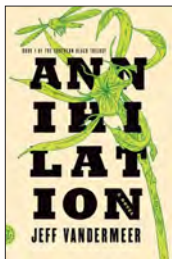

I can see why people like it. I'm just not people.

My goodness. This was awful.

Read this week:

Annihilation by Jeff Vandermeer.

This is all in good fun, so please share what you're reading on our social media accounts!

FOOD PANTRY; Every Friday, 12-Noon Sharp! Until gone. All welcome. We can help you stretch your budget. Free Recipes. Presbyterian Church (2711 2nd Ave.) To donate or volunteer, 907-225-3619. (c)

Brenda Schwartz's artwork shares the Alaskan coast shores with those who love it as she does. Her unique style incorporates classic watercolor technique, combining the creativity of wispy painterly backgrounds with accurately detailed marine vessels and scenes. Many of her images represent the distinct blending of watercoloring and preserved navigational charts.

A CHANGE YOU CAN FEEL

You can feel it—longer days, a bit more sunshine, and a renewed energy around town.

That same shift is happening in real estate. As the season changes, so does the level of activity, bringing new listings, new interest, and new opportunities.

If you've been thinking about making a move, this is the time to start the conversation and see what's possible!
